By clicking the checkbox at the bottom of this page you, as the author or representative of the author, confirm that your work is licensed to IEEE under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 (CC BY 4.0). As explained by the Creative Commons web site, this license states that IEEE is free to share, copy, distribute and transmit your work under the following conditions:

- Attribution — Users must attribute the work in the manner specified by the author or licensor (but not in any way that suggests that they endorse the users or their use of the work).

With the understanding that:

- Waiver — Any of the above conditions can be waived if users get permission from the copyright holder.
- Public Domain — Where the work or any of its elements is in the public domain under applicable law, that status is in no way affected by the license.
- Other Rights — In no way are any of the following rights affected by the license:
 - A user's fair dealing or fair use rights, or other applicable copyright exceptions and limitations;
 - The author's moral rights;
 - Rights other persons may have either in the work itself or in how the work is used, such as publicity or privacy rights.

For any reuse or distribution, users must make clear to others the license terms of this work.

Upon clicking on the checkbox below, you will not only confirm that your submission is under the CCBY license but you will also be taken to IEEE's Terms of Use, which will require your signature.
